

ANNOTATION
work program of the discipline
" Emergency Medicine "

| | |
|--|----------------------------|
| Speciality | 05/31/01 General medicine |
| Number of credits | In accordance with the RUP |
| Interim certification form (test/test with assessment/exam) | Exam |

1. The purpose of studying the discipline

Formation of a culture of safety, readiness and ability of a graduate majoring in general medicine to work in emergency situations in peacetime and wartime.

2. Summary of the discipline

3.1. Emergency Medicine

Studied: organization and activities of the All-Russian Disaster Medicine

Service;

- principles and methods of protecting the population from damaging factors of emergency situations;
- Features of the organization of health care provision for the population during the liquidation

consequences of emergencies of various origins;

- organization of sanitary and anti-epidemic support in emergencies;
- organization of medical supplies to units and institutions intended for medical and sanitary provision of the population in emergencies.

Head of the Department of BJD and

MKProfessor S.M. Groshilin