

ANNOTATION
work program of the discipline

"Medical rehabilitation"

Speciality	05/31/01 General medicine
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form (test/test with assessment/exam)	test

1. The purpose of studying the discipline developing students' understanding of the basics of medical rehabilitation and the required amount of knowledge about rehabilitation technologies; formation in patients and their relatives of behavior aimed at maintaining and increasing the level of health, motivation to lead a healthy lifestyle.

2. Summary of the discipline

Section 1. Theoretical and organizational foundations of medical rehabilitation. Stages of medical rehabilitation.

Section 2. The place of physical therapy (physical therapy) in the system of medical rehabilitation Section 3. Methods of medical rehabilitation for cardiovascular diseases

Section 4. Methods of medical rehabilitation for diseases of the nervous system Section 5.

Methods of medical rehabilitation for diseases of the respiratory system

Section 6. Medical rehabilitation for diseases of the musculoskeletal system Section 7.

Physiotherapeutic methods (PTM) in the system of medical rehabilitation

Section 8. Fundamentals of organizing rehabilitation assistance for people with disabilities Technical means for the rehabilitation of people with disabilities