

ANNOTATION
work program of the discipline

"Children's surgery"

Speciality	05/31/01 General medicine
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form (test/test with assessment/exam)	Test

1. The purpose of studying the discipline teach students the ability to diagnose surgical diseases and malformations of internal organs and the musculoskeletal system in children, determine the choice of method of their treatment and prevention

2. Brief content of the discipline

Acute appendicitis in childhood. Acute acquired intestinal obstruction in childhood. Congenital intestinal obstruction. Hematogenous osteomyelitis in childhood. Suppurative diseases Respiratory failure syndrome in newborns caused by developmental defects. Anorectal malformations. Poor posture in children, scoliosis, acquired spinal deformities. Congenital and acquired foot deformities.