

ANNOTATION
work program of the discipline
"Life Safety"

Speciality	05/31/01 General medicine
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form (test/test with assessment/exam)	Test

1. The purpose of studying the discipline

Formation of a culture of safety, readiness and ability of a graduate majoring in general medicine to work in emergency situations in peacetime and wartime.

2. Summary of the discipline

3.1. Life safety

Studied: the influence of hazards on the human body and its protection from adverse effects at the morphological, physiological, psychological and social levels;
Issues of protecting the human body in various conditions of life: ordinary and everyday life, in professional conditions, in emergency situations of various origins, as well as in war conditions.