

ANNOTATION
work program of the discipline

"Hospital surgery"

Speciality	05/31/01 General medicine
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form (pass/pass with assessment/exam)	Test/exam

1. The purpose of studying the discipline teach students the ability to diagnose surgical diseases, determine the choice of method of their treatment and prevention.

2. Summary of the discipline

Diseases of the operated stomach. Gastrointestinal bleeding. Portal hypertension. Differential diagnosis of jaundice. Pancreatic tumors. Intestinal fistulas. Acute stomach. Ischemic disease of the digestive system. Dysphagia syndrome. Diseases of the esophagus. Benign diseases of the esophagus. Esophageal carcinoma. Diseases of the neck and thyroid gland. Thyroid cancer. Breast diseases. Mammary cancer. Tracheal diseases. Abscesses and gangrene of the lung. Bronchiectasis. Empyema of the pleura. Lung tumors. Benign lung tumors. Lung cancer. Pulmonary hemorrhages. Diseases of the mediastinum. Mediastinitis. Heart defects. Congenital heart defects. Acquired heart defects. Coronary heart disease, aneurysms, pericarditis. Diseases of the aorta and its branches. Peripheral artery disease. Arterial thrombosis and embolism. Venous diseases. Thrombophlebitis, postthrombophlebitis syndrome. Phlebothrombosis and thromboembolism. Pulmonary embolism. Diseases of the diaphragm. Diseases of the spleen. Diseases of the retroperitoneal organs. Echinococcosis of the liver and lungs. Transplantation of organs and tissues. Symptomatic hypertension in surgery. Combined trauma of the chest and abdomen.