

ANNOTATION

work program of the discipline of educational practice "Introductory practice"

Speciality	05/31/01 - medical practice
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form	In accordance with the RUP

The purpose of studying the discipline: to familiarize students with the work of multidisciplinary medical institutions, to consolidate skills in providing first aid and patient care.

Summary of the discipline

Section 1. Structure and organization of work of multidisciplinary medical institutions; hospital departments, diagnostic and treatment rooms;

Section 2. Care of the seriously ill and injured (skin care and prevention of bedsores, change of underwear and bed linen, supply of a bedpan and urinal, assistance with meals, transportation of patients);

Section 3 Observation of patients and victims (assessment of the state of consciousness, measurement of blood pressure, pulse, respiratory rate, diuresis);

Section 4. Subcutaneous and intramuscular injections, placement of cups, mustard plasters, heating pads, compresses, cleansing enemas and gastric lavage, instillation of drops into the eyes, ears, nose, distribution of dosage forms;

Section 5: Basic Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation

Section 6. Sanitary and anti-epidemic regime and the nature of sanitary and educational work in health care facilities.