

ANNOTATION

work program of practice

"Doctor's assistant (obstetrician)"

Speciality	05/31/01 "Medicine"
Number of credits	In accordance with the RUP
Interim certification form	In accordance with the RUP

1. Purpose of practice

"Assistant Doctor (Obstetrician)" is to consolidate and deepen the student's theoretical training and acquire practical skills and competencies in the field of professional activities in obstetrics.

2. BriefWithmaintaining discipline:

Section 1: Physiological obstetrics.

Diagnosis of pregnancy and determination of its duration. Determination of the type, position, presentation and expected weight of the fetus. Diagnostics of the structure and dimensions of the bony pelvis, knowledge of the structure, dimensions of the head and body of the fetus. Study of modern methods of diagnosing pregnant women and women in labor. Diagnosis and management of physiological pregnancy and childbirth, knowledge of the biomechanism of childbirth in occipital presentation;

Section 2: Pathological obstetrics

Diagnosis and management of pathological pregnancy and childbirth, knowledge of the biomechanism of childbirth: with extension, pelvic proposals, anatomically narrow pelvis. Diagnosis of a clinically narrow pelvis. Diagnosis and tactics for abnormal fetal position. Diagnosis and management of preterm birth. Diagnosis and treatment of labor anomalies. Causes, diagnosis of placenta previa and premature abruption of a normally located placenta. Features of childbirth. Indications and techniques for performing operations: caesarean section, vacuum extraction of the fetus, application of obstetric forceps, manual separation and release of the placenta. Diagnosis of diseases, pregnancy complications and pathological conditions of patients. Diagnosis of emergency conditions in obstetrics and rationale for tactics in accordance with clinical recommendations and the procedure for providing medical care in each specific case;