

ANNOTATION

work program industrial practice "Junior Assistant" medical personnel (practice to obtain professional skills and professional experience)"

|   |                           |
|---|---------------------------|
| Speciality  | 05/31/01 General medicine |
| Number of credits   | According to the RUP      |
| Interim certification form (test/test with assessment/exam) | According to the RUP      |

1. The purpose of industrial practice"Junior Medical Assistant" personnel (practice to gain professional skills and professional experience)" is training students in qualified care of surgical patients, the basic principles of medical ethics and deontology, the ability to use medical equipment and instruments, and the competencies of nursing staff.

2. Brief With maintenance of the work program of industrial practice

Stage 1: "Preparatory stage"

Contents of the stage. Safety briefing, assignment to workplaces

Stage 2: "Production stage"

Contents of the stage. Mastering practical skills in caring for surgical patients

Stage 3: "Independent work"

Contents of the stage. Studying literature, preparing a practice diary_

Stage 4: "Boundary control"

Contents of the stage. Interview using practice diary